TALMUD STUDY AVAILABLE ON SHALOM TV

Every day, in Jewish communities around the world, individuals gather in studying the same page of the Babylonian Talmud, the traditional compendium of Jewish Law. Called "Daf Yomi" (Page of the Day), this cycle of learning takes seven and a half years to complete.

Now, those unable to attend a Daf Yomi class have the chance to study Talmud on cable television as Shalom TV, the nation's first full-time Jewish network, unveils a new series entitled "Dimensions of the Daf." Led by dynamic lecturer and best-selling author Rabbi Mordechai Becher, each hour-long episode features a major theme from the Daf portions.

"Mordechai Becher is a joy to study with, and anyone interested in Torah and Talmud will be enthralled by this series," extolled Shalom TV President Rabbi Mark S. Golub. "With humor and profound wisdom, Rabbi Becher's insights into Jewish law and Jewish values enlighten all who hear him."

Rabbis Mordechai Becher and Mark S. Golub

Born in Australia, Rabbi Mordechai Becher is a senior lecturer and outreach expert with Gateways Seminars, helping thousands of people reconnect with the beauty, wisdom, and relevance of their Jewish heritage. He has lectured at Ohr Somayach College in Jerusalem for fifteen years, served in the Israel Defense Forces, and taught training programs for Rabbis and educators. Rabbi Becher's latest book, Gateway to Judaism: The What, How, and Why of Jewish Life, is published by Shaar Press and distributed by Artscroll Mesorah.

Online, Rabbi Becher has responded to thousands of legal, ethical, and philosophical questions on the Ask the Rabbi Web site. His expertise in applying classic Jewish concepts to contemporary life has made him a sought-after lecturer around the world, and he has delivered speeches in Australia, Canada, England, Israel, Russia, South Africa, and the United States.

Rabbi Mordechai Becher received his Rabbinic ordination from the Chief Rabbinate of Israel and the Chief Rabbi of Jerusalem. He has studied comparative religion, archaeology, and history. Shalom TV is available on Comcast and Blue Ridge cable systems. A complete programming schedule is posted on the World Wide Web at www.shalomtv.com.
